Psalm c.

A PSALM OF THANKSGIVING.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness : come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the Lord he is God : it is he that hath made us, and we are his ; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : give thanks unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good ; his mercy endureth for ever ; and his faithfulness unto all generations.

AFTERNOON SERVICE.

Psalm xxi. 1—7.

FOR THE CHIEF MUSICIAN. A PSALM OF DAVID.

The king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord ; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice ! Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah. For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness : thou settest a crown of fine gold on his head. He asked life of thee, thou gavest it him : even length of days for ever and ever. His glory is great in thy salvation : honour and majesty dost thou lay upon him. For thou makest him most blessed for ever : thou makest him glad with joy in thy presence. For the king trusteth in the Lord, and through the lovingkindness of the Most High he shall not be moved.

The Ark is opened.

Almighty God! Sovereign of the Universe! From the place of Thy habitation Thou lookest upon all the indwellers of the earth. By Thee kings reign and princes rule. Thou establishest their thrones and in Thy hand is their glory and majesty. We yield thanks unto Thee, O Lord, we yield thanks unto Thee, for Thou hast dealt wondrous lovingkindness unto us. Thou didst place the crown of royalty on the brow of a virtuous woman, precious among the rulers of the earth, our beloved QUEEN VICTORIA.

For fifty years Thine arm did strengthen her to bear the heavy burthen of sovereignty. Faithfully hath she observed the oath she swore to govern her people according to the laws of her realm. Diligently hath she kept her solemn promise to cause law and justice, in mercy, to be executed in all her judgments.

Many peoples, even unto the end of the earth, of different tongues and various beliefs, hast Thou placed beneath her righteous sceptre; and unto them all she is even like a mother who loveth her children. Deceit and violence her soul abhorreth. She hath pity upon those that are poor and bruised in spirit, and precious are their lives in her sight. For this is all her craving and all her desire, that peace and truth may flourish in her realm, and that all her subjects may walk before Thee in uprightness, pure in heart and with clean hands.

She found trouble and sorrow, for thrice did death enter her dwelling and cut off the delights of her eyes in the midst of their days. Thou didst sustain her with the knowledge that in all her afflictions the sympathies of her people were assured unto her. Thy comforts soothed her soul. Thy rod and Thy staff upheld her.

We think, this day, O Lord, in the midst of Thy Temple, of Thy lovingkindness during the fifty years that have passed. Thou didst increase this people and bless it with prosperity. Good and righteous statutes did our Queen decree by the advice of her counsellors, the chosen of the land, goodly laws whereby the foundations were strengthened on which the happiness of society is set. Unto us also, the house of Israel, the full measure of justice was meted out, for it was ordained that there should be one manner of law for us as for the other in-dwellers of the land.

Source of all blessings! Look down from Thy holy habitation, and accept the thanksgiving we humbly offer unto Thee, for Thou hast done wonderful things. Thou hast executed counsels of faithfulness and truth. We are not worthy of all the mercies and of all the goodness which Thou hast shown unto us. We uplift our hearts unto Thee. Hearken unto our prayers for our Queen. Even as Thou hast been with her heretofore, so be her shield in the coming years. Protect and guard her in old age, strengthen and uphold her. Make her glad with the light of Thy countenance. Prepare Thy lovingkindness and Thy faithfulness that they may preserve her. May children of the third and the fourth generation be born unto her, and may never an heir be wanting to sit upon her throne.

Bless the Prince of Wales, who seeketh the welfare of his people with devoted heart and mind. Bless his beloved and honoured Consort. Pour out Thy spirit upon their dear offspring, and may Thy blessing rest upon all the members of the Royal House. Vouchsafe unto the counsellors of our Sovereign a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, a spirit of counsel and of might. Prosper the deliberations of the nobles of the kingdom and of the chosen men thereof who are assembled in the High Court of Parliament, and establish Thou the work of their hands.

God of the spirits of all flesh! Do Thou in this year of Jubilee proclaim liberty to those that are captive in sin and bound in misery. Comfort all that mourn. Appoint unto them the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, so that all the inhabitants of the realm may rejoice together in the joy of this high festival. Unite their hearts in the fear of Thee and in gladsome obedience to the behests of their Ruler, that violence may no more be heard in our land, neither wasting nor destruction in her borders. Withdraw not Thy grace from this Empire. Even as Thou hast dealt bountifully with it in bygone days, so show Thy great love to coming generations.

Speed the days when the abundance of peace and tranquillity will flourish upon earth, when the world will be filled with the spirit of brotherly love and the knowledge of Thee, so that nation may not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Then shall all flesh rejoice in Thy salvation. Amen. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE QUEEN AND ROYAL FAMILY.

May he who dispenseth salvation unto kings, and dominion unto princes: whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; who delivered David his servant from the destructive sword; who maketh a way in the sea, and a path through the mighty waters: May he bless, preserve, guard, assist, exalt, and highly aggrandize our Sovereign Lady QUEEN VICTORIA, ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, the PRINCESS OF WALES, and all the ROYAL FAMILY. May the supreme King of kings, through his infinite mercy, grant her life, preserve her, deliver her from all manner of trouble and danger; subdue people under her feet, make her enemies fall before her, and cause her to prosper in all her undertakings. May the Supreme King of kings, through his infinite mercy, incline her heart, and the hearts of her counsellors and nobles, with benevolence to act kindly towards us and all Israel. In her days, and in our days, may Judah be saved, and Israel dwell in safety; and may the Redeemer come unto Zion; O that this may be his gracious will! and let us say, Amen.

Psalm cl.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary : praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts : praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet : praise him with the psaltery and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance : praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe. Praise him upon the loud cymbals : praise him upon the high sounding cymbals. Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM.

I.

God save our noble Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
 God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
 God save the Queen!

II.

O Lord our God arise,
Scatter her enemies,
 And make them fall.
Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knavish tricks,
On her our hearts are fixed,
 O save us all.

III.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On her be pleased to pour,
 Long may she reign!
May she defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
 God save the Queen!

Dear Dr. Adler,

I am much obliged to you for the copy of the prayer
to be used on the occasion of the service in connection with the Jubilee celebration, and which, if you will allow me to say so, is, in my opinion, admirably worded and appropriate.

Yours truly
