My Confession of Faith

I believe in God, Who is the one, eternal, loving World-Spirit, the Creative Intelligence behind all things.

I believe that God is in me as I am in Him.

I believe that both life and death are in the power of God and that His wisdom is as eternal as His love.

I believe that from the performance of the will of God nothing can follow except that which is good for me and for all men and, therefore, I shall obey that will, no matter where it lead.

I believe that all men everywhere are brothers and that my well-being is bound up eternally with the well-being of all mankind. Hence I believe that every man should love his fellowmen and should act toward them as he desires them to act toward him.

I believe that man has been granted the privilege of life not only in order that he may seek happiness for himself but also that he may aid in the creation of a human society in which division, falsehood, and violence will cease and humanity, truth, and brotherhood will prevail.

I believe that these principles, which have been taught for many centuries by Israel's prophets and sages and which have been preserved and fostered by the Jewish people, will, in time, be accepted universally and will lead to the establishment of God's kingdom upon this earth.

Amen.
